the senior traveller, and led by experienced, and enthusiastic like minded people.

Odyssey Traveller's Contemporary Japan small group tour will take you through modern life in this East Asian jewel. This contemporary tour is an expedition through Japan's major urban areas, home to a staggering 91.6 percent of the country's population.

Our escorted tours begin and end in Japan's tantalising capital, Tokyo. For the first 12 days we get our fill of Tokyo fashion, technology, culture, and sights.

With Japan's long history reflected in the list of World heritage sites, ancient traditions such as Forest bathing and shoguns sit side-by-side with fast-paced urban living, and so we spend time as well in the ancient capital of Kyoto, exploring its gardens and temples. We visit the coastal city of Shimoda and spend a day on the art island of Naoshima.

Contemporary Japan Small Group Tour Itinerary

Tokyo

For most people, Tokyo is synonymous with Japan, the city's neon-lit skyscrapers, quirky fashion, cherry blossom and efficient bullet trains the first images that often come to mind. The Greater Tokyo Area is the most populous metropolitan area in the world with 37 million inhabitants. Our Tokyo tour weaves through its busy streets to discover its bright spots and unusual corners.

Highlights include a walking tour of Ginza, Tokyo's commercial heart, famous for its elegant streets and upscale shopping, dining and entertainment offerings; sushi breakfast in Tsukiji, the largest fish market in the world; a jaunt in Harajuku, centre of Tokyo's youth culture and an international fashion destination; and a shopping stop in Akihabara, the headquarters of everything related to electronics, anime, and manga.

We will take a break from the hustle and bustle of Tokyo by visiting the National Arts Centre, the Imperial Palace Gardens, the beautiful Imperial Shinto Shrine, and Ueno Park. We will also have a chance to explore the nearby city of Yokohama.

Shimoda

Shimoda is a picturesque coastal city in the south of the Izu Peninsula, iconic for being the landing place of Commodore Perry's ships in 1854, which marked the end of Japan's long period of isolation (Sakoku) and the beginning of diplomatic relations between the United States and Japan. Shimoda is famous among tourists for its beaches and hot springs, and we will enjoy a day of pampering here surrounded by the Pacific Ocean and bright green forests.

Kyoto

Kyoto was Japan's capital for more than a thousand years, and was instrumental in shaping Japan's unique identity and traditions. We will visit its gardens and temples, including the famous Kinkakuji Temple, also known as the Golden Pavilion as the structure's top two floors are completely covered in gold leaf. We will also visit former shogun residences, such as the Nijo Castle and Ninomaru Palace. We will enjoy a special Kyoto-style dinner with a performance by a maiko (an apprentice geisha ).

Naoshima

The final stop of the tour before heading back to Tokyo is the island of Naoshima. We will be staying at the island's top-level accommodation, Benesse House, a resort hotel and a modern art museum rolled into one, perched on a hill overlooking the sea.

Day 16*Locations: KyotoOverview:

We have a whole day for sightseeing in Kyoto, visiting the gardens and temples of Kyoto. First we visit Golden Pavilion (Kinkakuji). Rokuon-ji Temple was originally built as a villa by Ashikaga Yoshimitsu. It was converted into a temple after Yoshimitsu's death. This temple is famous in both Japan and abroad as a symbol of Kitayama culture. The Kinkaku, or "Golden Pavilion," was built as the Shariden. Covered with gold, the image of the pavilion, which stands at the edge of Kyokochi pond, is reflected in the water. Major repair work performed in 1987 has further enhanced its brilliance.

We will also visit the Silver Temple (Ginkakuji). Built by Ashikaga Yoshimasa as a mountain villa in 1482, Jishoji Temple was later converted into a temple. With its simple, noble design, it is a National Treasure. It is also as Kannon-dono (Kannon Palace). Togudo (Budda Hall), also a National Treasure, is a relic of early shoin-zukuri, or library style. In the garden designated as a special place of scenic beauty) are the so-called "Sea of Silver Sand" and the "Moon Platform," from which the light of the moon is said to reflect and shine on the Silver pavilion.

Day 17

Locations: Kyoto

Overview:

We have another day of sightseeing in Kyoto. Our first stop is Kiyomizu Temple. Established in 778, this temple has continuously attracted worshippers from among the populace since the Heian Period as “Kiyomizu-Kannon.” The temple contains structures from the 15th to 17th centuries, including the Jishu-Jinja Shrine. The Main Hall (Hondo), built in the “stage” style, is noted for its beautiful background scenery which changes with the 4 seasons – including the cherry blossoms and greenery of spring, and the leaves of autumn. Built atop a precipice, the main hall, which is a National Treasure, is famous as the “Kiyomizu Stage”- affording a magnificent view of the city below. The temple precincts contain 15 buildings designated as Important Cultural Properties, including the inner Temple (Okunoin), Amida Buddha Hall (Amidado), and the 3-tiered pagoda.

Next we will visit Nijo Castle, which was constructed in 1603 as the residence of Tokugawa Iyeyasu. Ninomaru Palace (a National Treasure), built in the shoin-zukuri (library-style) of samurai of the Momoyama Period, contains gorgeous paintings on the walls and sliding doors. It was here that the last shogun, Tokugawa Yoshinobu, restored the emperor to his ancient seat of power in 1867. Located at the site of the former Honmaru Palace and destroyed by fire in the 18th century, is the actual Honmaru Palace (an important Cultural Property), which was moved from the former Katsura-no-Miya Palace of the Imperial Palace, preserving the dignity of the original detached palace.

Lunch and dinner will be at a local restaurant in Kyoto.

Accommodation:

Kyoto Royal Hotel and Spa or equivalent.

Day 18

Locations: Kyoto

The museum was the dream of Mihoko Koyama (after whom it is named), the heiress to the Toyobo textile business, and one of the wealthiest women in Japan. The Miho Museum houses Mihoko Koyama's private collection of Asian and Western antiques, as well as other pieces with an estimated value of between US$300 million to US$1 billion. There are over 2,000 pieces in total, of which approximately 250 are displayed at any one time. We will enjoy a special Kyoto-style dinner with a performance by an apprentice Geisha (Maikos).

Day 19

Locations: Naoshima

Overview:

We travel to Naoshima today by catching trains and ferries. Lunch will be taken enroute to Naoshima.

Our accommodation for the next 2 nights is Benesse House. The main attraction of the Benesse House is its modern art museum, located on a hill overlooking the sea. This museum displays work created by many different artists from both Japan and abroad, that was inspired by the natural surroundings of Naoshima and the architecture on the island. Overnight guests staying at the Museum and Oval buildings can enjoy 24-hour access to the museum.

The Benesse House has other facilities including restaurants, cafes, shops, and a spa that are open to staying guests as well as day visitors. Hotel guests have the added privileges of exclusive restaurants
