Our short tour of Northern Italy draws you into one of the many fascinating parts of Italy. Northern Italy has been shaped by its beautiful landscape and long history. From Ancient Roman luxury villas to today's celebrities, the stunning lakes region has always attracted the world's rich and famous.

Itinerary:

This Northern Italy guided tour begins in the cosmopolitan city of Milan. Milan is the centre of Italy's world-renowned fashion industry, with luxury designers centred on the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele. From Milan we travel to two of the most famous Italian lakes – Lake Garda and Lake Maggiore. On Lake Garda we take a boat ride around the lake and visit the Roman Villa of Desenzano. We also make a day trip to Verona, a UNESCO World Heritage Site thanks to its well-preserved medieval town.

Following this, our trip to Italy heads into the north-east, a fascinating cultural blend of Italian, Venetian, Austrian and Slovenian influences. Here we make a visit to Trieste, one of Italy's most interesting cities, and the town of Cividale, home to an archaeological museum full of finds from the Roman, early-Christian and early-Medieval, Romanesque and Gothic ages. Finally, we end our trip in Venice, with a walking tour of St Mark's Basilica, the Doge's Palace, and all of the city of Venice's must-see sights.

Frequently Asked Questions About Our Northern Italy Tour:

- Two words to sum up Northern Italy?

It's basically impossible to sum up such a beautiful and diverse region in only two words. Perhaps 'lakes' and 'alps' would work – but then you'd be leaving out fascinating cities with cobblestoned streets, ancient ruins, and the seaside villages of the Cinque Terre. I think we'll leave this one up to you.

- How to get to Northern Italy?

Our tour begins and ends in Milan, which has a well-serviced international airport. Travelers from the Australia, the US, UK, Canada and New Zealand do not need visas to enter Italy for up to 90 days. Italy is also a member of the European Union Schengen Zone, making it a good launching point for further European travel.

- Why travel on a small group adventure?

There are so many reasons to join a small group tour! Travellers find that a smaller tour allows you to develop personal relationships with
