European Winter Tour: Visit Southern European Cities

This extraordinary European Cities small group winter tour takes senior couples or solo travellers through

- Italy
- Croatia
- Albania
- Macedonia
- and Greece

We experience Christmas in Rome, New Year's Eve in Venice, and visit the famous archaeological sites of Greece.

Itinerary of this European Winter Tour

The tour starts in Rome where we spend 6 days. Together we'll visit the Vatican (Sistine Chapel and St Peter's Basilica), the Piazza Navona Christmas Market, Galleria Borghese and Capitoline Museums as well as enjoying guided tours of the city led by a local guide. We'll have a traditional Christmas Eve dinner together and attend the Christmas mass at St. Peter's Square the next day. You'll also have plenty of time to explore Rome at your own pace. Then we'll board a train to Florence, where we visit the Accademia Gallery and the Bargello museum and you'll also have a day at leisure. Our next stop is Venice where we celebrate New Year's Eve by watching the famous fireworks. Then we spend the next 6 days in Croatia, staying in Opatija, Zadar and Dubrovnik while exploring Roman ruins, the Plitvice National Park and many more. Our next stop is Albania where we take a tour of Tirana before travelling to Ohrid in Macedonia. The final leg of our trip is in Greece, where we spend time in Veroia, Kalambaka and Delphi before the tour concludes in Athens.

Highlights of this Small Group tour

Highlights of the tour include taking in the spectacular New Year's Eve fireworks and celebrations in Venice, and witnessing the Pope's Christmas Day address at the Vatican. Later, we take the chance to explore Istria, the largest peninsula in the Adriatic, as well as travelling to famous destinations in Greece Delphi, Marathon, and The Acropolis. At the end of the tour, we also explore Tirana, Albania's magnificent
