Aboriginal history in Tasmania

The Format for this program

Each day we as a group head out to learn about the Aboriginal history in Tasmania. The program goes back into deep history and follows the history through to the current day. The day starts around 9.00am and typically finishes late afternoon. The program includes field trips to places of significant interest to support the program. The class is limited to 15 participants. This is one of a number of summer school programs

Summer School classes for mature and senior travellers

Odyssey offers a collection of week-long learning programs offered each January in Tasmania. Courses are refreshed for each year's programs. Classes are limited to 15 people.

Over the last twenty-five years, Odyssey's small group Summer School Program has given countless travellers an unforgettable educational and travel experience. Each summer, we prepare and offer fun and challenging special interest courses and programs designed to give travellers the options and opportunity to learn about history, religion, Australian culture, and the arts, among many other topics. These courses are designed in such a way that enthusiasts can deepen their knowledge of a particular topic or be initiated into new understandings on a subject.

We don't quite live on campus, but we will be staying in a comfortable hotel in central Launceston for this course. We will enjoy welcome and farewell dinners in between our seminars, as well as daily morning tea.

These programs offered are tailor-made for mature-aged and senior travellers who are eager to explore in-depth a particular topic. Summer school learning programs for mature and senior travellers who are and remain curious about the world. Read more about our philosophy of the Odyssey Summer Schools.
