Journey Through Mongolia and Russia by Train

This fully escorted journey through Mongolia and Russia small group tours program takes the active senior, with an interest in experiencing something different, into Mongolia and Russia. It includes a journey on the Trans-Siberian Railway.

This 30 day tour is designed for the mature or senior traveller, whether travelling alone or with company. You will be able to enjoy the experience secure in the knowledge that you always have a program leader with you to make sure that all runs smoothly.

Itinerary

Join the tour in Ulaanbaatar, the capital of Mongolia, and spend the first seven days in Mongolia with a side trip to Russia’s Lake Baikal. The tour then traverses the world’s largest landmass, the Euro-Asian Continental Plate, taking the traveller from Ulaanbaatar to St Petersburg via some of the world’s most remote areas. The small group travels across the Mongolian steppe to the vast expanse of the Siberian taiga and tundra; over the Ural Mountains (the divide between Asia and Europe) to Moscow and the waterways of Russia’s mediaeval Golden Ring.

Our tour uses two of the great rail journeys of the world. Firstly, the Trans Mongolian and then the Trans Siberian trains. The tour concludes with a cruise on the waterways between Moscow and St Petersburg.

Highlights

During your time in Ulaanbaatar you will have the chance to experience Mongolia’s famous Naadam Festival. This centuries old festival, once used for training warriors, involves competitions in horse riding, archery and Mongolian wrestling. While at Lake Baikal, learn about the world’s deepest lake. And experience Siberia’s traditions and culture while in Irkutsk. Finally, you enjoy an eleven night cruise between Moscow and St Petersburg. While travelling along the mighty Volga river, wonder at the splendid architecture of Russia’s Orthodox onion domed churches.

This fully escorted tour offers the opportunity to travel with a small group of like-minded adventurers through Mongolia and Russia.

Itinerary

Day 1

Locations: Ulaan Baatar

Overview: Arrive in Ulaan Baatar and make your own way to the accommodation. Welcome dinner tonight will be at a local restaurant. Ulaan Baatar is the world’s coldest capital situated in a basin surrounded by four mountains on the southernmost border of the great Siberian taiga and steppe. When Mongolia achieved independence from China in 1911, the city had become an important trading centre on the route between China and Russia, populated by Chinese, Russians and Mongolians. In Ulaan Baatar we are introduced to Mongolia and will observe the Mongolian people during the colourful Naadam festival. We visit the nearby Temple Ger Camp in the beautiful valley of Ar Bulagta, some 60km to the east of Ulaan Baatar where we stay in traditional gers. We will learn about the nomadic lifestyle of a 13th century Mongolian at the Chinggis Khaan Statue complex. (D)

Accommodation: 3 nights at Ulaan Baatar Hotel or similar
Day 2

Locations: Ulaan Baatar

Overview: In the morning we’ll visit the traditional Buddhist Gandan Monastery. The Mongolians are active followers of the Buddhist faith; one of the three incarnations of the living “Buddah” or “Dalai Lama” resided in Ulaan Baatar. Our sightseeing continues with a visit the Central Museum of Mongolian Dinosaurs where we get a chance to see some of the best dinosaur fossil collections in the world. The museum is housed inside the former Lenin Museum. It was constructed in 1974, with plans to be expanded. After lunch we visit Winter Palace, residence of Mongolia’s eighth re-incarnation of the Living Buddha and last king. (B,L,D)

Accommodation: Ulaan Baatar Hotel or similar

Day 3

Locations: Ulaan Baatar - Naadam Festival

Overview: After an introductory talk by a local guide, today is all about Mongolia’s Naadam Festival. Our full day’s worth of experiences includes the festival’s opening ceremonies, held in the main square. At the city's central stadium we view dressage and traditional Mongolian wrestling and archery. (B,L,D)

Accommodation: Hotel Ulaanbaatar or similar

Day 4

Locations: Ulan Baatar - Hustai

Overview: Today we enjoy a second day of games for the Nadaam Festival. Later in the afternoon, we drive to a Wild Horse Reserve Centre in the Hustai National Park, where we will spend the night. The park is home to the last remaining species of wild horse, the Takhi, commonly known as the Przewalski's Horse. We'll learn about the current conservation efforts and the status of herds found within the park. Our accommodation tonight will be here, in the National Park in traditional ger style. Dinner will be served at our camp, under the stars. (B,L,D)

Accommodation: Ger Camp Note: no single accommodation is available at Ger camps

Day 5

Locations: Hustai National Park - Gun Galuut Nature Reserve

Overview: Today we further explore the park by visiting some ancient stone monuments of Ongot and local herder families for a nomadic lifestyle experience. We then drive east past Ulaan Baatar to Gun Galuut reserve, located approx 120 km from of the capital city. On the way we stop at the biggest equestrian statue to Chinggis Khaan and visit the 13th century village. We enjoy dinner and sleep overnight at the Gun Galuut ger camp. This will be home for a total of two nights. (B,L,D)

Accommodation: 2 nights at Gun Galuut ger camp Note: no single accommodation is available at Ger camps.

Day 6

Locations: Gun Galuut Nature Reserve

Overview: We have a full day to explore the park, where some 200 big horn argali sheep find refuge. The park is also home to many rare birds including the White Naped and Siberian Cranes. Today we will also visit a local herder family. (B,L,D)

Accommodation: Gun Galuut ger camp

Day 7

Locations: Ulaan Baatar

Overview: After breakfast we transfer back to Ulaan Baatar. After lunch at a local restaurant, we’ll visit the Fine Arts Museum. In the evening we are treated to a concert of Mongolian Music and Dance, which includes a performance of the haunting Mongolian throat singing followed by dinner at a nearby restaurant. (B,L,D)

Accommodation: 1 night at Hotel Ulaanbaatar, or similar

Day 8

Locations: Trans Mongolian train to Irkutsk

Overview: The morning is free to explore the city on your own and then we get together for lunch. As there’s limited catering on the train, we plan a quick stop to shop for supplies before the next phase of our journey: this afternoon we board the Trans Mongolian train bound for Irkutsk, Russia. The train crosses the extensive Mongolian countryside. Pending local timetables, the proposed train is scheduled to depart at 3:22 pm. (B,L)

Accommodation: 1 night on board Trans Mongolian Express train in 4 berth compartments with exclusive use for 2 or 3 people (depending on group's final numbers) Single compartments are not available on train journeys and participants will be required to share 4 berth cabins with other participants of either sex.
Day 9

Locations: Irkutsk

Overview: Irkutsk is now the regional and administrative capital of Siberia. It came to prominence in 1651 as a Cossack garrison and come the 18th century, was an important trade centre for furs and ivory. Later it became the administrative, industrial and scientific centre during the Soviet era. With the coming of the railway in 1898, Irkutsk was linked with the rest of Russia and became an important strategic outpost. It is an ideal base to explore the world’s deepest Lake, Baikal. We arrive in Irkutsk at 9:30 am and commence with a city orientation tour and a visit to the Decembrist Museum. Lunch will be at a local restaurant, and dinner at our hotel. (L,D)

Accommodation: 3 nights at Ibis Irkutsk or similar

Day 10

Locations: Irkutsk - Lake Baikal

Overview: After breakfast we travel southeast to visit Talsty Museum of Architecture and Ethnography. We then continue to the town of Listvyanka, on the shores of Lake Baikal, for lunch. We also visit Baikal Lake Museum and panoramic platform on top of the "Stone Tcherskogo" mountain. We head to the pier, to enjoy a boat ride on Lake Baikal, the world's deepest lake. We return to Irkutsk and dinner this evening will be at a local restaurant. (B,L,D)
