Journey through Mongolia and Russia: Small Group Tour by Train

This fully escorted journey through Mongolia and Russia program takes the active senior or mature-aged traveller with an interest in experiencing something different on two of the greatest train journeys in the world: the Trans-Siberian rail and Trans-Mongolian train.

On this 30-day Mongolia and Russia tour and train journey, you will be able to enjoy the experience, varied destinations, and overnight train rides secure in the knowledge that you always have a Program Leader with you. We will also have local guides who will join us on our walking tour and city tour, armed with expert knowledge of the destinations visited.

Highlights of our Mongolia, Russia small group tour

Join the tour in Ulaanbaatar, the capital of Mongolia, and spend the first seven days in Mongolia with a side trip to Russia’s Lake Baikal, a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1996. During your time in Ulaanbaatar you will have the chance to experience Mongolia’s famous Naadam Festival. This centuries-old festival, once used for training warriors, involves competitions in horse riding, archery and Mongolian wrestling. We sleep in a traditional Mongolian ger in Hustai National Park, and visit the nearby Temple Ger Camp, some 60km to the east of Ulaanbaatar.

The tour then traverses the world’s largest landmass, the Euro-Asian Continental Plate, taking the traveller from Ulaanbaatar to St Petersburg via some of the world’s most remote areas. The small group travels across the Mongolian steppe to the vast expanse of the Siberian taiga and tundra; over the Ural Mountains (the divide between Asia and Europe) to Moscow and the waterways of Russia’s mediaeval Golden Ring. We also make a side trip to Lake Baikal, the world’s deepest lake. Discover the Russian capital on a train ride on the Moscow Metro and experience Siberia’s traditions and culture while in Irkutsk.

Our tour uses two of the great railways of the world: the Trans Mongolian and the Trans Siberian trains. The tour concludes with an 11-night cruise on the waterways between Moscow and St Petersburg. While travelling along the mighty Volga river, view the splendid architecture of Russia’s Orthodox domed churches. We also visit the highlights of Moscow and St Petersburg, including St Basil’s Cathedral and the Hermitage Museum.

Our guided tour also recognises that sampling the local cuisine is fundamental to an authentic travel experience. Each day, we eat breakfast, lunch, or dinner at a local restaurant (though, of course, some of our meals will be eaten when staying on the train).

This fully escorted tour offers the opportunity to travel with a small group of like-minded adventurers through Mongolia and Russia.

Itinerary

Day 1

Locations: Ulaanbaatar

Overview: Arrive in Ulaan Baatar and make your own way to the accommodation. Welcome dinner tonight will be at a local restaurant. Ulaan Baatar is the world's coldest capital situated in a basin surrounded by four mountains on the southernmost border of the great Siberian taiga and steppe. When Mongolia achieved independence from China in 1911, the city had become an important trading centre on the route between China and Russia, populated by Chinese, Russians and Mongolians. In Ulaan Baatar we are introduced to Mongolia and will observe the Mongolian people during the colourful Naadam festival. We visit the nearby Temple Ger Camp in the beautiful valley of Ar Bulagtai, some 60km to the east of Ulaan Baatar where we stay in traditional gers. We will learn about the nomadic lifestyle of a 13th century Mongolian at the Chinggis Khaan Statue complex. (D)

Accommodation: 3 nights at Ulaan Baatar Hotel or similar

Day 2

Locations: Ulaanbaatar

Overview: In the morning we'll visit the traditional Buddhist Gandan Monastery. The Mongolians are active followers of the Buddhist faith; one of the three incarnations of the living "Buddah" or "Dalai Lama" resided in Ulaan Baatar. Our sightseeing continues with a visit the Central Museum of Mongolian Dinosaurs where we get a chance to see some of the best dinosaur fossil collections in the world. The museum is housed inside the former Lenin Museum. It was constructed in 1974, with plans to be expanded. After lunch we visit Winter Palace, residence of Mongolia’s eighth re-incarnation of the Living Buddha and last king. (B,L,D)

Accommodation: Ulaan Baatar Hotel or similar

Day 3

Locations: Ulaanbaatar - Naadam Festival

Overview: After an introductory talk by a local guide, today is all about Mongolia's Naadam Festival. Our full day's worth of experiences includes the festival's opening ceremonies, held in the main square. At the city's central stadium we view dressage and traditional Mongolian wrestling and archery. (B,L,D)

Accommodation: Hotel Ulaanbaatar or similar

Day 4

Locations: Ulan Baatar - Hustai

Overview: Today we enjoy a second day of games for the Nadaam Festival. Later in the afternoon, we drive to a Wild Horse Reserve Centre in the Hustai National Park, where we will spend the night. The park is home to the last remaining species of wild horse, the Takhi, commonly known as the Przewalski's Horse. We'll learn about the current conservation efforts and the status of herds found within the park. Our accommodation tonight will be here, in the National Park in traditional ger style. Dinner will be served at our camp, under the stars. (B,L,D)

Accommodation: Ger Camp Note: no single accommodation is available at Ger camps

Day 5

Locations: Hustai National Park - Gun Galuut Nature Reserve

Overview: Today we further explore the park by visiting some ancient stone monuments of Ongot and local herder families for a nomadic lifestyle experience. We then drive east past Ulaan Baatar to Gun Galuut reserve, located approx 120 km from of the capital city. On the way we stop at the biggest equestrian statue to Chinggis Khaan and visit the 13th century village. We enjoy dinner and sleep overnight at the Gun Galuut ger camp. This will be home for a total of two nights. (B,L,D)

Accommodation: 2 nights at Gun Galuut ger camp Note: no single accommodation is available at Ger camps.

Day 6

Locations: Gun Galuut Nature Reserve

Overview: We have a full day to explore the park, where some 200 big horn argali sheep find refuge. The park is also home to many rare birds including the White Naped and Siberian Cranes. Today we will also visit a local herder family. (B,L,D)

Accommodation: Gun Galuut ger camp

Day 7

Locations: Ulaanbaatar

Overview: After breakfast we transfer back to Ulaanbaatar. After lunch at a local restaurant, we'll visit the Fine Arts Museum. In the evening we are treated to a concert of Mongolian Music and Dance, which includes a performance of the haunting Mongolian throat singing followed by dinner at a nearby restaurant. (B,L,D)

Accommodation: 1 night at Hotel Ulaanbaatar, or similar

Day 8

Locations: Trans Mongolian train to Irkutsk

Overview: The morning is free to explore the city on your own and then we get together for lunch. As there's limited catering on the train, we plan a quick stop to shop for supplies before the next phase of our journey: this afternoon we board the Trans Mongolian train bound for Irkutsk, Russia. The train crosses the extensive Mongolian countryside. Pending local timetables, the proposed train is scheduled to depart at 3:22 pm. (B,L)

Accommodation: 1 night on board Trans Mongolian Express train in 4 berth compartments with exclusive use for 2 or 3 people (depending on group's final numbers) Single compartments are not available on train journeys and participants will be required to share 4 berth cabins with other participants of either sex.
